GENERAL ALGER INTERVIEWED.

Court Proceedings-Social Doings-Raliroad

Yesterday afternoon the special car "Michigan," owned by the Lake Shere & Mi higan
Southern Relivoid company, was seen standing at the Union depot. The Harald scribe had learned the evening before that the car would arrive over the Union Pacific from the east and that it was occupied by General R. A. Algor, of Michigan, and party. The reporter thought there would be a chance for an interview and doped that the general might express himself politically.
